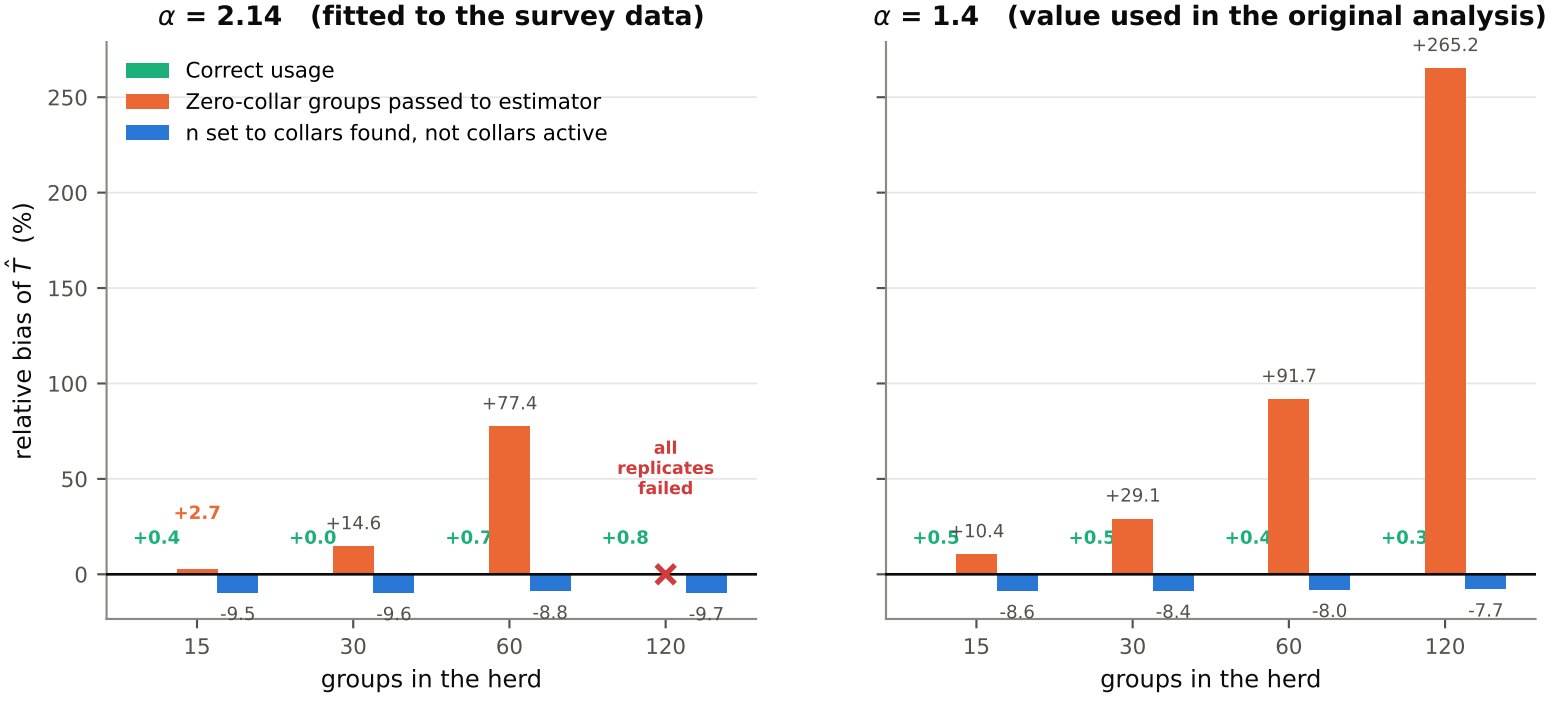
Under true random mixing the estimator is unbiased; the reported overestimation is reproduced only by the implementation errors



1,000 replicates per cell. True herd size 100,000; 100 active collars; collars allocated multinomially, i.e. random mixing holds exactly.